Queen Anne Born Feb. 6. 1664-5. Proc. Mar. 8. 1701-2. Whom God preserves.

Monarchs are God's Vice-Roys, the Imperial Throne ;
 No Hand but Heaven, Paramount, doth own,
 Their Lawful Scepters, Powers Divine, doth Sway,
 But Subject's Work, and Dutie's to Obey.
 Good Kings and Queens, being Born, thus to Command,
 Are Fortunate in all they take in Hand.
 They Reap the Blessed Fruit which they have Sown,
 Who Prize the Peoples Good more than their own :
 And this the Glorious ANNE hath always Shown.

January hath XXXI Days.

Eng. Account.

ASTROLOGY is a science the most Ancient, most Universal, and next unto THEOLOGY, the most Divine; so, it may justly be reputed the Mother of all Humane Learning; yet many Gross Mistakes are laid to their Charge, which in Reality are not Hers: But if it were so, there is no Science whatsoever (this being not Abus'd by Villians) can Boast of fewer.

Astrological OBSERVATIONS.

We are now by the Blessing of GOD arrived to the Beginning of the Year 1708, which begins with a Square of Jupiter and Mars, from Libra and Capricorn, this will set two Persons of Note at Odds; the Crown and the Sword does not well agree, many and Close are the Consultations of this Month, some Sly and Base Tricking about this time, and the People strangely Amused with Flying Reports; many Paper Lies, some Broils or Hot Contests about Religion. Saturn is Retrograde in Gemini, and makes much Grumbling in and about London, but his Trine to the Sun may in some measure Mitigate the matter the Uneasy-Party begin to look Dull, and the Image of their Beloved Diana is Broken down, and notwithstanding the Pope on the one side, and the Devil on the other, yet the True Church shall FLOURISH: Good News from Abroad about this time to the Industrious Merchant, and 'tis a Heavy Purse that makes a Light Heart, &c.

February hath XXX Days

Astrology lies Obnoxious to two sorts of Men, which most Wretchedly Abuse her; The first is the Superstitiously Ignorant, and the other wilfully Ignorant; the one from his Innate Ignorance, Condemns it as Diabolical, the other from a Slothful Ignorance, Condemns it as Sophistical; but there is yet a third, which do it more Injury than either, viz. Ignorant Professors, and Cheating Villians.

Astrological OBSERVATIONS.

♄ When Honour and Honesty go Hand in Hand, then you may be sure Jove
 Predominate; we must not Expect much this Month amongst us, but Consultations, and Contrivances, how to carry on the Cause, and Clip the Wings of the Ambitious & Tyrant:
 Some Reconciliation now between two formerly at Odds, and an Eminent Lady under some Trouble: The Square of the Sun and Saturn gives some Prince an Uneasiness, and some Person of Note, and perhaps in and about London too, meets with some Trouble and Affliction
 May Great-Britain be Happy, and for ever Flourish, and let the QUEEN thereof Live long, to be a Happy Darling-Mother, and let all True Loyal-Subjects always Pray,
 God save the QUEEN.

Since the Year 1700, the Roman Account is 11 days before the English, their 10th being our First.

March hath XXXI Days.

Eng. Account. That the Planets Incline and not Compel, is an Indisputable Axiom; yet altho' the Humane Soul (especially where 'tis freed from Gross Corporiety) is above the Strength of Astrol Influences in General, at sometimes whilst 'tis Submerg'd in Elementary Matter, all its Passions and Inclinations are subject to the Radical Influences of the Stars.

Astrological OBSERVATIONS.

♄ Now the Spring is drawing on, and some Noble Spirits are at Work, and very Weighty are the Matters of this Month, many Close Consultations both in Germany, France, and in other Countries, Poland is Miserable, and may thank themselves, some Sly Knaves Hatching and Contriving; But let us hope well, all their Sly Practices come to Nothing; Some Good News about this time Arrives to the Satisfaction of GREAT-BRITAIN, Some Old Courtier received into Favour, that has lyen long under a Frown; Some talk of Preparing for the Field, Spain in a Bad Condition under Two Masters, the People suffer much in their Trades, and now begin to Lament the Misfortune, in being so much Begotted to a French Interest, which should he Gain his Ends will overthrow their Constitution, and make them Slaves For-ever.

April 1611, X, LXX, Days.

Happy then is he that can Rule the Stars (I mean in a Godly, Sober Life) not as our Charm Masters do, which, who, make Ignorant People Believe the Stars are at their Back; no, a Good Man may see how they are in his Power; and a Wise Man knows how to make good Use thereof, and let him take the Advice of Boethius, viz.

Astronomical
OBSERVATIONS.

☿ We have yet no Grounds but to Conjecture, that the Affairs of the Grand-Allies are like to go on Well; the French Tyrant is Ruined if he keeps not the War out of his own Country, he had been Down long since, had not his Army been Maintain'd by other Countreys: The Emperor now begins to have his Eyes open; it is a sad thing to be Præst Rid, had he been Ruled by his Friends, his Affairs had happen'd better, and so might those of his Brother also, we have Dangerous Adversaries lurking amongst us, who had they Opportunity would do us more Mischief than the Common-Enemy, and shew themselves more Cruel than the FRENCH themselves; let them go on till a Walter Reward them for their good Service, one Rebel in his Heart is worse than Ten Open Enemies: Some Broils and Blood-shed this Month, &c.

May hath XX-XI Days.

The Sun Rules the Mind; Mars he Governs the Will; Venus the Desire; Saturn the Memory; Jupiter the Intellect; Mercury the Imagination and Reason, is a faculty Implanted in the Brain, and is the Commutable Product of the last three; but the Moon hath Influence over the Common Sense, Organs of the Senses, and Liquors Subservient.

OBSERVATIONS.

☛ This Month Produces no Dangerous Aspects, but all things seem to be carried on very Quietly, some Smattering of a Peace, and some Proposals made for it; But I fear it will not hit, Blessed be the Peace-Makers, for the Honest Tradesmen is weary of a long War, which is now become a Trade among the Rich, and the Souldier having nothing but his Sword to trust too, is not willing to hear that News, yet after so many Sad Storms all over Europe, why may we not hope for a Calm: There is much Opposition and Underhand Dealing to keep the War on Foot, many Reports spread Abroad, and much of it False, to Amuse the People, yet if I am not mistaken about this time, things offer very Fair, and I hope to the Advantage of GREAT-BRITAIN, and the Glory of our Victorious QUEEN, &c.

RECOUNT.

The Great Conjunctions of the Two Superior Planets always denote more than Ordinary Matters to be Transacted in those Kingdoms or Countries subject to that Sign, in which those Congresses are Celebrated; but what's Denoted is more Certain and Stupendious when the Planets Change their Trigon, &c.

Astrological Observations.

[illegible]

Now there is a preparation for some great and Noble Action, pray God it may tend to the good of the Allies; the Conjunction of the Sun and Saturn, shews that many hopeful Counsels will come to nothing, by Treachery; and some eminent Prince under some trouble and affliction, both in body and mind. The square of the Sun and Jupiter, and also that of Saturn and Jupiter, will cause many hot disputes about Religion, amongst some that have but little in them; former Mischiefs will be animated, and many Controversies will arise; it is usual for the Shrub to contend with the Cedar, but not with that success, as David had in the matter of Goliath. Men are of divers Opinions, some would feign fetter themselves, and the whole Nation, and others hate the Commencement of a Chain, tho' made of Gold.

July hath XXXI Days.

In all great Conjunctions, Extraordinary Aspects, Eclipses or Nativities, great Care ought to be taken, not only in what sign the Significators are posited, but also with what fixed Stars they are near unto in Longitude and Latitude, because their Influences will in some measure participate of the Natures of such Signs and Stars.

This Month begins with another square of Saturn and Jupiter, and now the Effects of the last Conjunction, begin to appear in their proper Colours; some Action in the Field, near this time; some Threatnings, and Contention amongst some in Places of Note; and some fly contrivance on Foot, the Jesuitical Party now bestir their stumps for fear their order should be overthrown by their own Clergy of other Orders, that hate them mortally. God preserve us from an Untoward Distemper about this time, especially in and about London. France under great Affliction, and the People hardly used by Taxes, &c. under the Arbitrary Power of a merciless Tyrant.

Great God and good, what Glory is't to be.
 (A King) and Govern all by Tyranny.

En Account

August hath XXXI Days.
 A Comet or Comets appearing at the time of a great Conjunction, or soon before or after it, excites and stirs up more severe and formidable Effects. And if so, what dismal and prodigious Effects may rationally be expected from the late Conjunction of Saturn and Jupiter in Aries. Europe is already sensible of the Effects thereof

This seems to be a moderate Calm Month, and can produce no considerable Actions, as to War-like Affairs, the square of Mars and Venus gives some eminent Female an uneasiness of mind, and probably her old Lover has forsaken her. Close Consultations among Officers in the Field, how to order the Game before the Campaign breaks up, and happy the Man that can catch a Mackrell; now most of the States-men in Europe are things of a high Nature, and are much concern'd about Affairs of great Importance. Now Peace is talk'd on again, especially in the North, where for a long time, has been nothing but Desolation and Destruction; the Suede is Great, the Muscovite makes a bustle in the World, and begins to be a troublesome Neighbour; it was an oversight in those that first warn'd him, the Art of War

September hath XXX Days.

Every Conjunction of Saturn and Mars, is of Cruel Portent, either to Kingdom, City or Person, that shall have their Ascendant, Sun or Moon, upon the degree (or near it) of such a Congress; and if it chanceth to happen upon the Horoscope of any Edifice, or famous Building, 'tis too often found by Experience to be the Prodromus of Ruin.

The beginning of this Month produces a visible Eclips of the Sun in Virgo, and some places Eastward from England, will be sensible of the Effects of it; and besides there is no less than seven square Aspects, and therefore this Month may seem (tho' late in the Year, to be more concern'd in Action than any of the other that are past, much quarelling and Contests, some Schermishing, if not a set Battle in the Field, made Controversies about Religious Matters, some brought to Justice, and are Rewarded for their Ingenuity, with a Halter; many speak fair, and seem well Inclined to do good, but trust not fair Pretences; and like the Dog in the Fable, lose the Substance by catching at the Shadow.

Nature with all its properties, could not subsist without the Coelestial Influences, yet where they are in excess, beyond the capacity of matter or Patient; there, I say, Nature suffers, if there be a Deficiency of Influence, for nothing is more Consistent therewith, than due Proportion.

Now the Soldier is Preparing to return into winter Quarters, after much marching, and counter marching; the Industrious Merchant, now may expect good News from abroad, and meet with good Returns; some persons meet with Preferment, and some others are rejected, and are Eclipsed in their honour; some young Lady meets with sorrow, and a young Clerk is prefer'd near this time; let him mind his business, for there is a time for every purpose under the Sun.

ENG. ACCOUNTS
No Structure can long continue, which hath an infirm Foundation, nor do the Stars shed forth more of their Influences than the Recipient is capable of Retaining; and therefore in some Genitures, tho' the Planets be well dignified, and as well posited and may therefore promise a long Life; yet 'tis naturally impossible, that such an effect thou'd always follow, but for the Reason aforesaid.

1 st Sets 3 A			♂	or	or	♂	The Aspects of this Month are but few, and those too benevolent, except the square of Jupiter and Mars , this will stir up some difference between some Persons of Note, and Saturn becoming Retrograde in this Month, and returning back into Gemini , will give London again a touch of his former kindness, and make people subject to Melancholy, and a great disorder in the Blood, causing Coughs, Consumptions, and the like. A great part of this Month will be spent in Councils, and very Judicious contrivances for the good of the Publick, being almost wearied out with long Expectations; they all seem very willing to agree, and every one is ready and willing to hear the Judgment of the other, he that speaks Truth, tho' he smart for it, has a Plaster in his own Conscience that Cure him.

For Account

All things that are of an Elementary Composition, are subject to a certain determinate Time which is not only from these Points and Revolutions of the Stars, but also from the Intelligences; and without a true knowledge thereof no Science, (but what is very perfect in its Principles) can claim any reasonable Perfection. This every Student ought to consider.

This being the last month of the year, quickly doth produce an Opposition of Saturn and the Sun, but first the Sun meets with a Sextile of Jupiter, which will mitigate much of the Evil portended by Saturn, in afflicting some eminent Hero; but some Officer of State lies in danger of being turn'd out; here is also an Opposition of the Sun and Mars; and some stout Rebel will spurn at the face of Majesty; the conjunction of Saturn and Mercury, will make dark doings these dark Nights.
 Much Villany committed by the baser sort, and some meet with a reward due to their merits; the year now, is drawing towards an end, with a very dark Christmas, so now let us conclude, with God bless our most Gracious Sovereign Lady, Queen Anne, and Grant her a long and prosperous Reign here, and a Crown of Glory hereafter. Amen.

The Use and Explanation of the foregoing Table, of the Pleiades; or Seven-Stars.

THE Table of Pleiades, or Seven Stars, contains Ten Columns; the first towards the Right-Hand Expresseth every Fifth Day of the Month, as 1, 6, 11, 16, 21, 26, &c. And the Second shews their Rising in Hours, and Minutes. The Third their Southing. The Fourth their Setting, as is plain by their very Titles; and herein you are to Observe, that the Letter (a) signifies Afternoon, and the Letter (b) Beforenoon, or Morning, and so likewise in the 5th 6th and 7th Columns the same, and also in the 8th, 9th and 10th, which is Plain to the meanest Capacity, as for Example.

Suppose you desire to know the Rising, Southing, and Setting of the Pleiades, or Seven-Stars; on January 21, I find they Rise 10, (b) 16, which shews they Rise at 10 of the Clock, and 16 Minutes past, before Noon, as the Letter (b) at top denotes, they are South the same Day at 6 (a) 32, that is at 6 a Clock, and 32 Minutes past in the Afternoon, as the Letter (a) at the Top signifies in the Second Column, and in the Third Column, you find they set the same 21st of January, at 2 (m) 48, which is 2 a Clock, and 48 Minutes past, signified by (m) by which Letter is meant Morning; again on February 21, they Rise at 8, and 15 Minutes past before Noon, South at 4 and 30 Minutes past in the Afternoon, and Set at 12 and 46 Minutes past in the Morning; again March 21, they Rise at 6, and 31 Minutes past in the Morning, South at 2, and 47 Minutes past in the Afternoon, and Set at 11 and 3 Minutes past in the Afternoon, or Night, and so of all the rest of the Months, which is both Plain and Easy to the meanest Capacity, and of great Use to the Honest Country-man, &c.

COLEY's Astrological Observations, 1708.

Of the Eclipses of this present Year, 1708. which are in Number Four, viz. Two of the Greater Luminary the Sun, and Two of the Lesser Luminary the Moon, and are in order as followeth.

THE First is of the Sun, on the 11th Day of March, in the very beginning, or the Sign Aries; but not visible here.

The Second is of the Moon, and visible on March the 25th, in about 15 Deg. of Libra; It begins a little past 4 in the Morning, the Middle is about half an Hour past 5, and the End near 7 in the Morning; and about half the Moon's Body will be obscured from our sight.

The Third is of the Sun, Sept. 3d, and will be visible if Clouds hinder not; It happens in the beginning of the last Decanate of Virgo; It begins about 7 in the Morning, and ends about 9, being of near two Hours continuance.

The Fourth and last is of the Moon, on Sept. 18th, in the Evening; It will be visible, but a small Eclipse, not quite 4 Digits obscured; which is far less than 13, as some think, &c.

On June 16th, this present Year 1708, happens a Square of Saturn and Jupiter, where Saturn applies to Jupiter, being swiftest in motion; and at the latter end of the same Month, Jupiter becoming swift in motion, comes up with Saturn again; so that they are not out of the Orbs of a Square for many Days.

Besides, this Year produces a Conjunction of Saturn and Mars, on the 6th Day of September, in the very beginning of Cancer.

And on April 15th, happens an Opposition of Jupiter and Mars, from Virgo and Pisces; Jupiter is Retrograde, and Mars is Direct.

And so much for the Eclipses, &c. for this Year, which brings me next to consider the four Quarterly Seasons.

Of the Four Quarterly Seasons.

ASTRONOMERS divide the Year into Four Quarterly Seasons, with certain prefixed Times; which is, when the Sun enters the four Cardinal Points. Others again divide it into two parts only, (viz.) Winter and Summer. Again, Nature it self seems

seems to make four Quarters or Seasons of the Year, without any certain Beginning or Terminating, as to any strict Time; but according to the Temperature and Disposition of the Air, least her fruitful Womb should produce Abortives, or want time for Maturity: Therefore to avoid these Inconveniencies, Nature, like a careful and indulgent Mother, doth produce every Plant, and all the other Fruits of her Womb, in due and fit Seasons: And lest sensitive Creatures should miscarry, she delivers them her Dictates by instinct, or some inward Motion, &c.

And now kind Reader, and honest Country-man, in speaking of the four Quarterly Seasons, I shall, according to my wonted Custom, begin first with that of the Winter; and my Reason for it is, Because most (nay, almost all) of this Quarter, happens after the Almanacks begin their Date, and is as followeth.

Winter.

NOW the flocking together of small Birds, and others, as Feltfers and the like, shews, or foretels, the Approach of this Season: The Days are now at the shortest, and yet if pinching Weather, as Snow, Frost, &c. hinder not, there is a Flower, call'd Christmass-Flower, will be in blossom this Season.

This Quarter, being the most Melancholly in all the Year, begins at such time as the Sun touches the first Point or Scruple of Capricorn, or the Cælestial Goat, which falls in this Year on December the 10th. 1707, at 22 Hours 32 Minutes P.M. but more plain to the honest Country man's understanding, on December the 11th day, at 32 minutes past 10 in the Fore-noon, according to Mr. John Wing's Tables; at which time we have about 14 deg. of Aquarius on the Cusp of the Ascendant or Horoscope; and about 10 deg. of Sagittarius on the Medium Cæli, or tenth House. The Sun, Venus, and Retrograde Mercury, are upon the Cusp of the 12th House; the Moon in Sagittarius in the 10th; and Mars behind the Cusp thereof, in the ninth, in conjunction with the Scorpion's Heart, a violent fixed Star of his own Nature: Jupiter is near the Cusp of the 8th; and Saturn Retrograde in the 4th, within the Orbs of an Opposition to Mars. God preserve the honourable City of London from Fire, and from an untoward Distemper about this time. Some places in Flanders and Germany are menaced with Troubles, especially Mentz, Lovane, and Bruges; the Kingdom of Sardinia,

COLEY's Astrological Observations, 1708.

nia, under some apprehension of an approaching Danger ; the Dukedom of Wertenburgh under some Affliction ; and a general grumbling among People of all sorts ; a great Complaint among Trades-men, and especially the common sort suffer very much ; there will be much thwarting and underhand dealing this Quarter ; and also many close Consultations, both in Councils and Senates, Let the Grand Allies have a watchful Eye, the Great Disturber of Europe is now at his Wits end, and will endeavour for a Peace, or push on hard once, for all. The Moon is Lady of the 6th, and in the 10th in Sagittarius. Many People this Quarter will be afflicted with the Wind Collick, with lameness and weakness in the Thighs, affliction in the Bowels, Imperfection in the Breast and Stomach, with weak Digestion, &c. Now we are in hopes and expectation of Ships from many parts, returning home, be careful, and have a watchful Eye, the Grand Thief has his Emissaries at work : He that ambitiously strives to be great, cares not how he comes by it ; but a merciful and meek Man is contented with what God pleases to lend him : And so I shall conclude this Quarter with a Verse borrowed from Mr. Abraham Cowley, the famous Poet ; and is the Advice of Martial to his Friend Fabian, meeting him at home, and is thus,

Honest and Poor, faithful in Word and Thought ;
What hast thou Fabian, to the City brought ?
Thou neither the Buffoon nor Baud can'st play,
Nor with false Smiles th' Innocent betray ;
Nor saun at Court, nor of that Number be,
That can betray those that confide in thee.
Nor corrupt Wives, nor from rich Beldams get A Living by thy Industry and Swear :
Nor with vain Promises and Projects cheat,
Nor bribe nor flatter any of the Great :
Nor sneak nor cringe to those of high degree ;
Who, tho' they're Great, have poorer Souls than thee.
Nor in the Mode be sinful to prefer,
And more for Crimes than Sense their Title wear.
Nor can'st thou envy all's below thy Wate,
Except those Villains that betray the State.
But you're a Man of Learning, Prudent, Just ;
A Man of Courage, Firm, and fit for Trust.
Why ! you may stay, and live unenvy'd here ;
But (Faith) go back, and keep you where you were.

Now

COLEY's Astrological Observations, 1708.

Now this brings me to the next Quarter to be considered, which is,

The Spring.

Which Pleasant Quarter takes its beginning where the Winter ends: Now all those things that lay last Quarter entomb'd within the Bowels of their natural Mother the Earth, begins to make appearance, and peep forth as one newly risen from the dead, and receive vigour again. Now the Harbinger, or welcome Messenger of the Spring appears; the Wag-tail or Water-swallow, some People call it the Barly-bird, for about that time, the honest Country-man begins to sow that Grain, which is converted into Malt, and from Malt to humming Beer and Ale, which, if not (abused) will cheat the Heart of Man, and is more wholesome than French Alamode Wine or Brandy, that Destroyer of Mankind. This Quarter brings the Swallow also, and the Cuckow, an excellent Friend to the Citizens Wives: Now also the pretty Nightingale makes the Nights most pleasant and harmonious: Now the Plants and Vegetables soon shew the Spring by adorning the Fields with Violets and other pretty Flowers, which sweeten and perfume the Air, and is very grateful to the smell. This Noble Quarter takes its beginning at such time as bright Phebus mounts the Coelestial Ram, or Sign Aries, or more properly (the Earth Libra) which is this Year on March the 9th, about 33 min. past Noon. In this Figure we have the beginning of Leo ascending, and the Sun Lord thereof, near the Cusp of the tenth; Aries is in the Cusp of the tenth; the Lion's Heart is posited in the Ascendant, in opposition to Mars in the seventh; and it is no wonder if this prove a troublesome Spring. Some Overtures for a peace, God grant it; but there is so many suck such sweet Livings out of the Sinews of War, that it is to be fear'd a Peace will be welcome but to few of those sort of Cattle; many there be that love the Money, but do not love the Blows. Many this Quarter do complain of Pains in the Arms and Shoulders, and Melancholly abounds, and many Diseases proceeding from the Blood, much weakness in the Knees, Itch, Scabs, and the like. About the beginning of this Quarter, some eminent one belonging to the Long Robe, meets with a Frown, if not a Remove, from some place of Authority, and some shy close Consultations by Rogues in a Corner; but their Design will

will be blasted, and let a Halter be their Reward. Many Quarrels and Debates, and a early preparing for the Field, and an old doting Fool is caught in Vulcan's Net, for being so busie with his beloved Venus. (A Lady weeps) and thus I shall end this Quarter with the Fable of the old Lion, &c.

An old weakly Lion, whose Teeth were all gone,
Was plitied by few, but was dreaded by none.
The surly wild Boar made bold to defie him ;
The Bull Gor'd his Sides, when e'er he came nigh him :
Ev'ry Day he meets with Fronts and Disgraces ;
He is burtted by Rams, and kick'd at by Asses ;
The Munkey and Ape, with the nasty Baboon,
Would scorn to afford him a Visit at Noon.
The silly old Bruit being vext at his Fate,
Is resolv'd by a Halter to finish his Date.

The Moral I shall leave for every one to give his Judgment upon, and I shall proceed to the next thing to be considered, which is,

The Summer Quarter.

THis Quarter takes its beginning this Year on June the 10th, at about 54 min. past Noon, at which time Sun touches the first Point of Cancer, making with us the longest Day. Now the Creatures having brought forth their young ones, and nourished them, the Fruits grow now to maturity, and the Grass and Corn soon becomes ready for the Syth and Sickle, the Days all this Season are declining, but yet afford sweet and pleasant Flowers, very pleasant and delightful to the smell. In the Scheme of this Quarter we have 9 deg. of Libra ascending, and 12 deg. of Cancer on the Mid-heaven, and so the other two Angles are easily known. Here Mars is disposed of by Venus, who is Lady both of the first and eighth Houses ; and Mars also posited in the eight, and in a weak condition : The 8th is deemed by Astrologers the House of Death, and Jupiter is posited in the 12th in Virgo a House of Sorrow and Imprisonment. And now the Gown and the Sword seem both to be but in a very ill condition ; many Quarrels will arise this Quarter, and the French King's Affairs in a very ill condition. People may flatter themselves as they please ; I mean those that are angry at our Success, and did not care how soon they see their native Land in French Fetters, or under the Government of the worst Tyrant now living in the World. Let such go to France and enjoy

COLEY's Astrological Observations, 1708.

joy the Fruits of their own Wishes ; and let the honest hearted Britain stay here and enjoy Liberty under the best Queen that ever sway'd the Scepters of these Realms.

Therefore let all true Subjects ever pray,
That many Years, and long we may enjoy
So Good, so Gracious, and so Mild a Queen ; Such as before her, yet, has never been.
May she live long, to gain a lasting Praise,
And at the length crown'd with eternal Joys.

And this brings me in the next place to consider the Sun's Entrance into Libra, which is the Autumnal Quarter.

Which takes beginning this Year on Sept. the 11th, at 14 h.
3 m. P. M. or more plainly, the 12th day, at 3 min. past
2 in the Morning, at which time the Sun touches the first point of the Coelestial Ballance, or Sign Libra, or the Earth Aries, take as you will, or as you best like it. This Season is usher'd in by the appearance of the Wood-cock, at which time the Swallow leaves us and is seen no more again till March. This Season provides us with Wine to cheer our Spirits in cold Winter ; but many take such large Evening Draughts, the Nights being long, that it helps them to a pinch of the Gout ; and those that sport with Venus, to a P-x in the Spring, if they are not very careful. Now the Sap in most Vegetables is contracted, and the Leaves begin to fall, and the Glory of Trees and Plants begin to fade, and be strip'd of their Summer Garments : And in this Figure we have 18 deg.
of Leo ascending, and the beginning of Taurus culminating, and Saturn and Mars behind the Cusp of the 12th in Cancer, in square to the Sun and Jupiter, who are located in the 3d in Libra. Now the Soldier begins to draw towards his Winter Quarters, and will huff and bounce of his Summers Work. Let our Men of War be vigilant, and have a watchful Eye, this Quarter brings home many Merchant Ships well laden ; and sad it is, when poor Men have had the Fateague of a large Voyage, that upon our own Coast they must be snapt up and carried into France, to do a more severe Penance. Much grumbling and repining about this time, and some fall into the Grave of Dispair.
Now these long Evenings Busy-Heads will be at work, and broach Stores, such as shall infuse strange Thoughts into the Credulous, who are apt to believe every thing they hear :
And now

COLEY's Astrolological Observations, 1708.

Let every Nation henceforth take great Care,
How they engage themselves in costly War:
Emptying their Purfes, and become the Tools
Of use, unto some hot brain'd fighting F—lls.
These cut Wars Hydra only with design
That it may bud, and so grow out again.
Let these, if ever Arms they mean to take,
Do it with Courage, for their Country's sake.
To Wars let such Men go, and when it cease,
Ne're trust old Mounfieur with a patch't up Peace;
Nor let no private Articles be made,
Which ever may our future Peace invade.
Let Peace and Plenty evermore be secu
Within the Realms of our most Glorious Queen.

Vivat Regina.

Some Philosophical Remarks concerning the Difference of the Human and Brutish Souls; From a Learned Modern Author.

THE Prerogatives of the Rational Soul, and the Differences from the other sensitive or corporeal (besides what has by many Philosophers, according to their different Judgment, been already said) may be yet farther noted, by comparing the Acts of Judgment and Discourse, or Ratiocination which it puts forth more perfectly, and oftentimes demonstratively, when these kinds of Acts from this Power in the Bruits are drawn forth imperfectly, and only Analogically. If all that Bruits can do, and how far they can go towards the Exercise of Reasoning and Deliberation, thro' inward Faculties, and acquir'd Habits, be compar'd with the Functions of the Human Intellect, and its scientific Habits, it will hardly seem more than the Drop of a Bucket to the Sea. To say nothing of that natural Logick, by which any one endowed with a free and perspicuous Mind, probably, and sometimes most certainly, concludes concerning all doubtful things, or things sought after (if that we mind) how the human mind being adorn'd by Learning, and having learnt the Sciences and liberal Arts, is able to work, understand, and find out; It would be thought, tho' in an human Body, to be rather living with Gods or Angels: For indeed here may be consider'd the whole Circles or Encyclopædia of Arts and Sciences, which (excepting Divinity) hath been the Product of the Human Mind; and it argues the Work-man, if not Divine, at least to be a Particle of Divine Breath; to wit, a spiritual Substance, since wonderfully intelligent, immaterial, and which therefore for the future is immortal; it would be too tedious to relate the subtil Wiles of Logic, and the extremely curious Web of Notions; or the Reason of Essence or Beings; where the things of Natural Philosophy, being unfolded by their Causes, are dissected, as it were, to the life; the most pleasant Speculations, the profound Theorems, or rather Cœlestial of the Metaphysick, or supernatural things; yea, and the grand Mysteries of other Learning first out by Industry; but above all the rest, is it not truly amazing to see the most certain Demonstrations of the Mathematicks? and therefore a-kin, and greatly alluding to the Human Mind; its Problems and Riddles, how difficult soever, to be extricated with no labour; yea, and many things of it attain'd, and most Glorious Inventions; What is it below a Prodigy, that Algebra from one Number or Dimension, which at first was uncertain and unknown, being plac'd, should find out the quantity of another altogether unknown? What shall I say concerning the Proportion of a Circle or Triangle, a Quadrangle, and other Figures; and of their Sides and Angles variously measurable among themselves, being most exactly computed? What, besides the Humane Intellect, having learn'd the Precepts of Geometry and Astronomy, takes the spaces of Inaccessible places, and their Heights; also the breadth of any Superficies, and the Contents of Solids; yea, the Demension of the whole Earthly Globe; measures exactly the space of Hours and Days, the times of the Year, the Tropicks by the progress of a shadow; yea, the whole Orbs, Magnitudes, and Distances of the Sun and Stars for a long time to come; calculate and exactly foretel their Risings and Settings, Motions and Aspects one to another; and many other things too numerous to relate in this small Volumn, &c.

The Conclusion to the Almanack.

Farewel my Little Book, now take thy Stage
Throughout Great-Britain, in this carping Age:
Let Criticks know, that thou dost not regard
Their poisonous Teeth, let them bite ner'e so hard:
But to thy Friends be kind, and let them see
What from the Stars is here declar'd by thee.
If some condemn thee, pray such to forbear;
Without some Faults there is not one this Year.

Since

COLEY's Astrological Observations, 1708.

Since Adam's Fall, we all transgress, a-lack;
And thou amongst the rest, poor Almanack!
Thy Habit is but plain; and tho' it be?
The painted Windows give dim Light we see.
Once more be gone, I say, take thou thy Fate,
And please thy Friends till thou art out of Date.

' So then if thy Success be not too bad,
' I'll send thee out next Year much better clad.

AT the Sign of old Lilly, near the old Barge-House in Christ-Church Parish Southwark, at London; liveth Francis Moore, Licensed Physician and Student in Astrology, who by the Blessing of God, cures all sorts of Agues at one Dose in Young or Old, when left off by others; he has an excellent Medicine for young People or Children; has an excellent Powder for the Worms, and a Famous Tincture that gives immediate Ease in the Colick, and carries off all other Pains in an Instant, with other Medicines proper for most cureable Diseases. He gives Judgment by Urine or the Astrological way which is surest, without seeing the Patient. & He desires all that send to him out of the Country upon Business of their own, that they would pay the Postage, or expect no Answer to what they write.

Writing and Mathematicks are taught in Stainford in the County of Lincoln, by Joseph Pepper, with whom Youth may be commendably Boarded for speedier Improvement.

Artificial Teeth set in so well, as to eat with them, and not to be discovered from Natural, nor to be taken out at Nights, as is by some falsely suggested, but may be worn Years together: They are an Ornament to the Mouth, and helps the Speech.
